

CELEBRITIES AND BEAUTIFUL AFRICA

Africa is one of the most important continents in the world. However, the general public does not understand why. The size of the continent and the size of the population represents one of the greatest opportunities in the world in regard to eliminating poverty through economic growth and of course the minerals and agricultural products that they dominate in supplying to the world. Africa is second only to Asia in size and population. Add to this the fact that mankind originated in Africa. It is in everyone's interest to support the improvement of life and economics for the people of Africa in doing so we are truly helping ourselves. Leaders and celebrities in Science, Politics, Film, Social Services, Television, Music, Business and Education understand this. It is the children and general population that must be educated and that is exactly what Beautiful Africa is doing.

“The changing of one’s mind is followed by the changing of one’s behavior.”

—Jacob R. Miles III, President, Beautiful Africa LLC
CEO, Grapevine Star Entertainment Inc.

Beautiful Africa is focused on changing people's mind about Africa by providing a "A New Way to Look at Africa" through books, video, curriculums and products.

The following are experiences, quotes and comments from some of our friends regarding the continent of Africa.

“I was in Africa, I see myself in all these girls. I have nothing but respect for them. I can't understand how someone who's been there can't want to reach back and do something.”
—Oprah Winfrey

“I love Africa. The myth isn't true, Africa's lovely and beautiful.”
—Michael Jackson, Entertainer

“One thing African people need is better public relations. If people in this country think of Africa as a place with kids and flies swarming around their heads, they won't understand that these people are you and you are them.” —Don Cheadle, Actor

“It's time. It's Africa's time. I've never felt so positive about the future there as I do now. We just have to help get it together.” —Quincy Jones

“There is another Africa out there. Take Rwanda. Look at what they're doing, they are growing rapidly, they have all kinds of partners including Bill Gates and me.”
—President Bill Clinton

“By reaching out to others, I've found a life that is meaningful.” —Angelina Jolie, Actress

Beautiful Africa LLC
106 E. Texas, Grapevine, TX 76051
Tel: 817.251.1371 Fax: 817.251.1462

Info@GrapevineStar.com
www.BeautifulAfrica.net
www.GrapevineStar.com